Summary of the Reviewing Process for Proposed Books

Proposal Submission

Author submits detailed book proposal (title, abstract; contents, references)

Initial Editorial Review

Editorial team checks completeness, relevance, clarity, and originality

Peer Reviewer Assignment

2–3 subject experts selected for independent review

Peer Review Evaluation

Reviewers assess content quality, structure, style, and pofential impact

Editorial Decision

Proposal is accepted, conditionally accepted (revision), or rejected

Full Manuscript Submission

Author submits complete manuscript with figures, tables, and updated references

Manuscript Review & Copyediting

In-depth content and technical review; copyediting for clarity and formatting, athicacks

Final Approval

Author approves final proofs; manuscript formatted for print and digital publication.

Publication & Dissemination

Book is assigned ISBN/DOI, printed, digitally released, and marketed.